Response to Amendment/Arguments

1. This action is in response to amendment filed 09/10/07, which has been entered.
2. Claims 8-10, 14 and 16 have been canceled; claims 1-7, 11-13 and 15 are still pending. (Note: On P. 7, 2nd paragraph of the 09/10/07 response applicant states that claims 1, 8 and 11-16 are amended and claims 8-10, 14 and 16 are canceled. It therefore is not clear which claims are meant to be canceled. The examination will be based on the claims as presented on pp. 2-5.)
3. In view of Applicant's amendment, the objections to the drawings and claims 8, 11, 12, 14 and 16 have been withdrawn.
4. Applicant's arguments filed 09/10/07 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive; see below.
5. In remarks Applicant argued in substance:
 - 5.1 that there is no teaching in the applied art for a first converter and a second converter to generate a low-resolution image and a high-resolution image, respectively; nor an arithmetic unit to obtain a difference the two images (P. 8, last paragraph)

[Note, obtaining the difference between the low-resolution image (the "first" image of amended claim 1) and the high-resolution image (the "second" image of amended claim 1) is new subject matter since as originally filed the difference is between the original input image and the second image (per Figs. 2A, 3A, 3C and 3E and the original claim 1). In a telephone interview with applicant's representative, Mr. Kevin McKinley, seeking clarification, it was agreed that for this Office action it would be assumed that the difference is between the original and the second images.]

However, as recited in the rejection of claim 1 in the 6/12/07 Office action, and as applicant correctly described in the first paragraph on page 8 of the response, Geisler discloses generating a low-resolution image, a high-resolution image (note: per figures 3B and 3C of the instance application, "high-resolution" as used in the application clearly means larger size, i.e., more pixels), and a difference of the original and the second images. Therefore the argument is not persuasive.

5.2 that there is no motivation to combine and that hindsight reconstruction is relied upon (P. 9, first paragraph)

In response to applicant's argument that there is no suggestion to combine the references, the examiner recognizes that obviousness can only be established by combining or modifying the teachings of the prior art to produce the claimed invention where there is some teaching, suggestion, or motivation to do so found either in the references themselves or in the knowledge generally available to one of ordinary skill in the art. See In re Fine, 837 F.2d 1071, 5 USPQ2d 1596 (Fed. Cir. 1988) and In re Jones, 958 F.2d 347, 21 USPQ2d 1941 (Fed. Cir. 1992). In this case, a motivation has been provided and applicant is referred to the rejection of claim 1 in the 6/12/07 Office action.

In response to applicant's argument that the examiner's conclusion of obviousness is based upon improper hindsight reasoning, it must be recognized that any judgment on obviousness is in a sense necessarily a reconstruction based upon hindsight reasoning. But so long as it takes into account only knowledge which was within the level of ordinary skill at the time the claimed invention was made, and does not include knowledge gleaned only from the applicant's disclosure, such a reconstruction is proper. See In re McLaughlin, 443 F.2d 1392, 170 USPQ 209 (CCPA 1971).

6. In view of the above discussion, the USC § 103 rejections of the pending claims 1-7, 11-13 and 15 in the Office action mailed 06/12/07 still apply and are maintained.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

7. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

8. Claims 1-7, 11-13 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

9. Specifically, claim 1, and similarly claims 11 and 15 recites "to obtain a difference between the first image data and the second image data" in lines 6-7, the support cannot be found in the application as originally filed. Their respective dependent claims are similarly rejected.

10. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Art Unit: 2624

11. Claims 11 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

12. Claims 11 and 12 both recite the limitation "according to claim 8" in lines 1 and 2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Conclusion and Contact Information

13. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

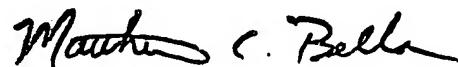

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
